

WHO WE ARE

As members of  NAGPS, the National Association of Graduate-Professional Students, we join with over 40 major U.S. universities to represent the 2.6 million graduate and professional students in the United States.

NAGPS is a non-profit organization [501(c)(3)] dedicated to the continual improvement of the graduate and professional student experience and of the member associations that serve graduate and professional students.

Our Mission:

- Develop and sustain a member network to connect graduate and professional students and their associations;
- Provide resources and support to empower members;
- Advocate on behalf of graduate/professional student interests across the nation.
